Everyone here at the Wizards Keep Studio is excited today, as we are able to share this latest news with you all.
Vorlds End Volume 3 moves on apace, as Tim works on the Pencilled pages Take a look inside to see the new Colour Flats by NEW Colour Flats Wizard. Ric Lumb. Excitement here inside the Keep today, as we unveil a page of FLAT Colours from Ric Lumb's first batch of Worlds End ♦ Volume 3 - Don't Fear The Reaperspages. Here is Page 5<img src="images/stories/misc/worlds end v3 page 05 flats 700pxls.jpg" border="0" /> Tim can't wait to paint this page - but he will have to, as he is working away presently on the pencils for more pages from this book. in the story with the scene that begins the utter destruction of Gaeyrth under the onslaught of the Reapers - the total antonym to the scene here on this page as we transition from "Wynter" to  "Spryng" in the Northern Hemisphere on Gaeyrth. Anyhow, we hope you will all join us in a resounding and well deserved, "Welcome Aboard" to Ric with this first of his pages from his first batch. Wait until you see the rest. Flat Colourists are unsung heroes for the most part, but not here at the Keep where we adopt them as fully fledged Colour Flats Wizards. now without further ado, if you checked the words before seeing the picture - what are you doing, Folks.span style="font-size: 12.16px;">Best Wishes,Tim, Bentley, Izzy and the rest of the Gang here at Wizards Keep.
